

Jewish Times
By Isiah and Isikiel

I. Torah Creativity and the Future

So in fact the young Prophet is busy with science and its history but actually about freeing people from their fears or suffering, which actually is a problem with theological minds – Sirohi, the Prophet has cured them – he calls his thesis rhythmanalysis.

II. Syntax and the Future in Jewish Prophecy

Now we love the word syntax – it is an old word for logic – the steps in syntax are in fact difficult life and rhythms followed by happiness and Torah lectures which then is one step away, which fails is possible to in fact more difficulty and happiness both, and this is prophecy.

III. Israel News

Israel is busy working on their academic life and even on their computers for the future of their happiness because of Sirohi, the Prophet.

The Hindu Newspaper (Jewish edition) 1989

Introduction by Hari Sen and Mukul Mangalik

So in fact Jewish people live in Israel, another truth is India will have a Prophet who is Amarjeet, the columnist's son to be, and all of this becomes Jewish news, the long wait for the young hero. But in fact he already surmises in the future, that it is not theology that matters but rigorous history and economics, perhaps sociology and then theological disciplines – he is unaware that theology means psychotheology, or suffering and crises like Schreber's case, or even Rosensweig, and all his problems are in psycho-theology, a crisis he calls of symbolic title – he might have the crisis – leader of Israel.